

STANFORD UNIVERSITY
ANNUAL CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE FACULTY POLICY ON CONFLICT OF COMMITMENT AND INTEREST
Calendar Year 2010

Annual reporting on outside professional activities and certification of compliance is required of all members of the Academic Council and Medical Center Line (and certain other faculty) by Stanford's Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest, Research Policy Handbook 4.1. These reports are considered to be confidential and will be reviewed only by the cognizant dean and a designated senior school administrator (in some schools, by the department chairperson and a designated departmental administrator), by the Dean of Research and a designated senior administrator, and by designated University officials (e.g., the Office of the General Counsel and Internal Audit).

The deadline for the completion of this certification for all faculty is April 29, 2011.

This year's report covers activities from January 1, 2010 through December 31, 2010.

Name: _____ SUNet ID: _____

I. Appointment Information

1. Indicate the percentage of time for which you were appointed during each of the quarters of the past academic year. Note that for any quarter you were on University sabbatical, your percent time is 100% irrespective of whether you took full or reduced salary.

_____ Winter _____ Spring _____ Summer* _____ Autumn

* Summer appointments reflect the amount of time in which you received summer pay from Stanford:

One month of summer salary = 33% summer appointment

Two months of summer salary = 66% summer appointment

Three months of summer salary = 100% summer appointment

Note that nine-month salary spread over 12 months, with no additional summer salary = 0% summer appointment

Note that approved and paid sabbatical leave is treated the same as active duty for outside activity reporting purposes

II. Presence on Campus

Stanford's Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: "A full time appointment conveys an obligation for a faculty member to have a significant physical presence on campus (main or overseas), to be accessible to students and staff, and to be available to interact with Stanford colleagues throughout every quarter during which he or she is on active duty, unless the department chair and/or school dean has granted specific prior approval for extended or frequent absences from campus."¹

2. During any quarter of the past academic year during which you were on active duty at Stanford, did you have extended or frequent absences from campus which were not previously approved by your department chair and/or school dean?

Yes No (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

III. Limitations on Outside Professional Activities

Consulting is defined as "professional activity related to your field or discipline, where a fee for service or equivalent relationship with a third party exists." This definition includes paid positions on Boards of Directors or Advisory Boards. Payment in this context includes shares, a partnership stake, or derivative interests such as stock options. It does not include: scholarly communications/publications; public or university service not undertaken for financial gain.

Stanford's Policy on Outside Consulting Activities by Members of the Academic Council sets the maximum number of consulting days permissible for those on a full time Stanford appointment at 13 days per academic quarter (the 13 day limit is adjusted for individuals holding part time appointments).

3a. During the current reporting period, did you do any paid consulting (as defined above) for entities outside Stanford?

Yes No

3b. If Yes, please indicate the actual number of days per quarter that you devoted to paid consulting. Fractional days may be entered as a decimal, e.g., 3.5.

_____ Winter _____ Spring _____ Summer _____ Autumn

¹ Requirements for field research and other reasons for absence from campus differ across the University, and faculty are referred to their own department for additional guidance on extended or frequent absence.

3c. During this reporting period, did you do any consulting for or receive payment from companies or organizations outside Stanford (excluding work for scholarly societies or the government, such as serving on NSF, NIH, or other sponsor agency review panels)?

Yes No (If Yes, please supply the following additional information for each company or organization with which you had a consulting relationship)
 (If No, go to item 3h)

Entity name: _____

3d. What was the nature of your activity with, personal financial interest in, or compensation from, the company or entity in which you are reporting a relationship?

Relationship/Activity (check all that apply)

- Advisory Board (AB) membership
- Service on Board of Directors (BoD)
- Consulting (other than AB or BoD membership)
- Payment for lectures or papers
- Royalties for inventions or discoveries related to the company (in which you have the above relationship)
- Stock, stock options, or other ownership interests in a publicly traded company (in which you have the above relationship)
- Stock/stock options in a privately-held company (in which you have the above relationship)
- Other (please describe) _____

3e. If you entered into a consulting or non-disclosure agreement with this commercial entity, did you provide a copy of the Stanford University Requirements for Faculty Consulting Activities and Agreements to this entity?
 (<http://rph.stanford.edu/4-3A.html>)

Yes No

If no, a copy of this summary of Stanford policy should be provided to this entity http://rph.stanford.edu/docs/consulting_requirements.pdf

3f. Was payment for your relationship/activity with this company $10,000 or more?

Yes No

3g. How many days per quarter did you spend in this activity? _____

Duplicate this page and complete questions 3c – 3f for all companies or entities with which you did consulting.

Stanford's Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states that full time faculty are expected to devote their primary energies and professional interests to their University obligations, and may not accept managerial responsibilities as part of their outside consulting activities.

3h. Did you have managerial responsibilities or a principal investigator (PI) role in an activity outside the University-- including executive roles in an outside organization (such as Chief Scientific Officer, Director of Research, etc.), but excluding managerial/PI roles at the Veterans Affairs Palo Alto Medical Center (VA) or the Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI)?

Yes No (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

Stanford's Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: "When any outside activity detracts from the conduct of University duties a conflict of commitment will result. Even activities such as pro bono work government service in the public interest and any outside employment unrelated to the faculty member's University responsibilities (therefore not included as consulting ...) should be managed so they do not take precedence over a faculty member's primary commitment to the University."

3i. Did you have any other outside commitments, activities, or professional relationships which presented, or might appear to have presented, a conflict of commitment with your Stanford University appointment?

Yes No (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

IV. Personal Financial Interests in Outside Entities

Stanford's Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: "A Conflict of Interest occurs when there is a divergence between an individual's private interests and his or her professional obligations to the University such that an independent observer might reasonably question whether the individual's professional actions or decisions are determined by considerations of personal gain financial or otherwise. A Conflict of Interest depends on the situation and not on the character or actions of the individual."

The question below asks about certain regularly-encountered situations where Stanford faculty or members of their immediate family have a financial relationship with or financial interest in organizations or third-party entities.

4. During the current reporting period, did you (or your spouse or domestic partner or dependent children) have an employment, consulting, or other financial relationship with, or ownership/equity interest in, any company, organization or third-party which intersects with any of the following types of activities in which you are involved?
