Annual reporting on outside professional activities and certification of compliance is required of all members of the Academic Council and Medical Center Line (and certain other faculty) by Stanford’s Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest, Research Policy Handbook 4.1. These reports are considered to be confidential and will be reviewed only by the cognizant dean and a designated senior school administrator (in some schools, by the department chairperson and a designated departmental administrator), by the Dean of Research and a designated senior administrator, and by designated University officials (e.g., the Office of the General Counsel and Internal Audit).

Deadlines for the completion of this certification vary by school. Generally, the required filing deadline for faculty in schools other than the School of Medicine is 1 December 2008.

Name: ____________________________ SUNet ID: ____________________________

Reporting Period: These questions apply to activities throughout Academic Year 2007-2008, defined as 1 September 2007 through 31 August 2008.

I. Appointment Information

1. Indicate the percentage of time for which you were appointed during each of the quarters of the past academic year. Note that for any quarter you were on University sabbatical, your percent time is 100% irrespective of whether you took full or reduced salary.

   _____ Autumn   _____ Winter   _____ Spring  _____ Summer*

* Summer appointments reflect the amount of time in which you received summer pay from Stanford:
One month of summer salary = 33% summer appointment
Two months of summer salary = 66% summer appointment
Three months of summer salary = 100% summer appointment

Note that nine-month salary spread over 12 months, with no additional summer salary = 0% summer appointment
Note that approved and paid sabbatical leave is treated the same as active duty for outside activity reporting purposes
II. Presence on Campus

Stanford’s Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: “A full-time appointment conveys an obligation for a faculty member to have a significant physical presence on campus (main or overseas), to be accessible to students and staff, and to be available to interact with Stanford colleagues throughout every quarter during which he or she is on active duty, unless the department chair and/or school dean has granted specific prior approval for extended or frequent absences from campus.”

2. During any quarter of the past academic year during which you were on active duty at Stanford, did you have extended or frequent absences from campus which were not previously approved by your department chair and/or school dean?

θ Yes  θ No (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

III. Limitations on Outside Professional Activities

Consulting is defined as “professional activity related to your field or discipline, where a fee-for-service or equivalent relationship with a third party exists.” This definition includes paid positions on Boards of Directors or Advisory Boards. Payment in this context includes shares, a partnership stake, or derivative interests such as stock options. It does not include: scholarly communications/publications; public or university service not undertaken for financial gain; or “moonlighting” in an endeavor unrelated to your academic field or discipline.

Stanford’s Policy on Outside Consulting Activities by Members of the Academic Council sets the maximum number of consulting days permissible for those on a full-time Stanford appointment at 13 days per academic quarter (the 13-day limit is adjusted for individuals holding part-time appointments).

3a. During the current reporting period, did you do any paid consulting (as defined above) for entities outside Stanford?

θ Yes  θ No

3b. If Yes, please indicate the actual number of days per quarter that you devoted to paid consulting. Fractional days may be entered as a decimal, e.g., 3.5.

_____ Autumn  _____ Winter  _____ Spring  _____ Summer

3c. During this reporting period, did you do any compensated consulting with organizations outside Stanford for which you earned $10,000 or more or received any non-publicly traded equity (including a partnership stake or derivative interests such as stock options)? This includes work on a Board of Directors, but does NOT include serving on NSF, NIH, or other sponsor agency review panels. If so, please indicate the entities with which you consulted and the average number of days per quarter of time committed.

Outside Professional Activities Certification System Questionnaire 11 August 2008

Stanford’s Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: “Because full-time faculty are expected to devote their primary energies and professional interests to their University obligations, they may not accept significant managerial responsibilities as part of their outside consulting activities.”

3d. Did you have managerial responsibilities or a principal investigator (PI) role in an activity outside the University—including executive roles in an outside organization such as Chief Scientific Officer, Director of Research, etc., but excluding managerial/PI roles at the Veterans Affairs Palo Alto Medical Center (VA) or the Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI)?

θ Yes  θ No  (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

Stanford’s Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: “When any outside activity detracts from the conduct of University duties, a conflict of commitment will result. Even activities such as pro bono work, government service in the public interest, and any outside employment unrelated to the faculty member’s University responsibilities (therefore not included as consulting …), should be managed so they do not take precedence over a faculty member’s primary commitment to the University.”

3e. Did you have any other outside commitments, activities, or professional relationships which presented, or might appear to have presented, a conflict of commitment with your Stanford University appointment?

θ Yes  θ No  (If Yes, please provide an explanation in the space below)

IV. Personal Financial Interests in Outside Entities

Stanford’s Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest states: “A Conflict of Interest occurs when there is a divergence between an individual’s private interests and his or her professional obligations to the University such that an independent observer might reasonably question whether the individual’s professional actions or decisions are determined by considerations of personal gain, financial or otherwise. A Conflict of Interest depends on the situation, and not on the character or actions of the individual.”

The question below asks about certain regularly-encountered situations where Stanford faculty or members of their immediate family have a financial relationship with or financial interest in organizations or third-party entities.
